JANUARY 29, 2020 CYCLE 16, DAY 4

Varsity Boys' Basketball: The varsity Boys basketball team beat a tough Bourne basketball squad, by the score of 51-45 in their own house. Ethan Almedia's energy sparked, and lead the Bears on both sides of the floor scoring 16 points along with grabbing 8 rebounds while playing tremendous defense as well. Shane Poitras Jr had a strong game offensively as well scoring 14 points. However, the game was won due to the suffocating TEAM defense by the BEARS and it all started at the top with tremendous on ball defense by Colin Wildrick. Bourne's team came to play and battled right down to the final whistle, it was an excellent game. The next game for GNBVT will take place at home Friday against a tough Case team, the team would love to see the entire student body in the stands rocking the BEARS DEN in support of your team.

JV Boys' Basketball: The Bears JV Boys Basketball team got off to a red hot start against Bourne en route to a convincing 80-29 victory. The team worked together on both ends of the court improving on their team defense and offensive execution. The boys are back in action this coming Friday when they host Case.

Winter Track: Winter Track: Tonight our Boys and Girls track teams will compete against Somerset-Berkley here at GNB Voc-Tech. Faculty, Staff and students are invited to attend and support all our Senior track team members as tonight will be our seniors last time ever competing here at Voc-Tech starting at 6:30pm. The auditorium will be open directly after school for team members to do homework and watch a movie. report time for all team members is 5:15pm.

Varsity Girls' Basketball: The Girls' Varsity Basketball team lost a heartbreaker last night to Bourne by a score of 47-45. Leading the way for the Bears was Jaelyn Dudley with 18 points and 12 rebounds. Tianna Bulgar added 11 points and 16 rebounds. Kaitlyn Duarte also added 11 points. The girls will travel to Case on Friday. Thank you to everyone involved with the black out game and making it a special night for the girls.
