quirky adults compete for the ultimate title of “Champion.” As each competitor journeys towards victory or defeat, they openly share their life experiences, hopes, dreams, ambitions, and insecurities. If you think you’d like to perform on stage, then don’t miss this one! Hope to see many of you there.

SPORTS:

JV Boys’ Basketball: The place was rocking, and in a great high school basketball environment, DR was able to shoot the ball very well in the second quarter allowing them to separate from the Bears, despite the Bears playing. Inspired defense throughout the night led by Mason Gomes, Leading the way for the Bears’ offense was Alex Polanco, and Brennan Rosa, each with ten points. While Colin Wildrick and Serrone Ramos chipped in with 9 points each as well, but unfortunately the Bears came up short on the score board by the score of 63 – 51. The teams record is 3 – 4 and will travel to Seekonk on Friday to take on the Warriors. Great game boys!

JV Hockey Team: The JV Ice Hockey Team skated well over the Holiday break. Defeating Diman, tying Bourne, and losing to Taunton. Next game is tomorrow, Thursday, January 9th, 2020, at Hetland Rink against Bourne at 7:30pm.
