CYCLE 17, DAY 3

Boys Varsity basketball: The Boys Varsity basketball team traveled to Somerset last night to take on the Raiders. It was a tough night for the BEARS, and they were beat by Somerset Berkley by the score of 80-63. Brennen Rosa played a good game leading the team with 18 points, while Shane Poitras Jr. chipped in with 13 points of his own. If the BEARS plan on making the tournament, they will have to all pull together and play inspired basketball and win the remaining four games. The next challenge for the team will come on Friday night as they travel to ORR to take on the bulldogs. Good luck boys.

Boys JV Basketball: The Boys JV Basketball team beat Someset-Berkley yesterday 70-46 avenging a loss from earlier this season. The team was led by great team defense and good shooting. The Boys travel to ORR Friday for their next game.

Girls Varsity Basketball: The girls varsity basketball team lost last night to Somerset by a score of 49-22. Tianna Bulgar led the way for the bears on offense with 8 points and also added 18 rebounds. The girls will face ORR at home on Friday.

Senior Night: Attention GNBVT Faculty, Staff and Students please come out to support our Senior Winter Athletes next week on our Senior Nights. Hockey will be honoring their Seniors on Monday vs Diman at 7pm, Boys Basketball will be hosting Apponequet on Tuesday at 6:30pm and our Girls Basketball Team will be rounding out Senior Night Week with their game vs Wareham on Thursday at 6:30pm. Our senior athletes have commitment their time and effort to our programs and have represented GNBVT extremely well, your support will be greatly appreciated. Go Bears!
