CYCLE 20, DAY 5

SCHOOL NEWS:

Artisan Art Show: Please join us for our first annual, Artisan Art Show. Student and teacher artwork will be on display and available to purchase through a chance audition. All proceeds will benefit the Greater New Bedford Voc Tech Scholarship fund.

Bilingual Math Tutoring: Math tutoring in Spanish will be available with Mr. Golembewski in G109 on Tuesdays from 3-4pm.

Harlem Wizards Event: The Class of 2022 is hosting the Harlem Wizards on Saturday, April 4th at 6:00 p.m. We are putting together a team of faculty and students to face the Wizards, and we are still looking for players and volunteers to help run this event. Please see Mrs. O'Neill in Room B-344 or Mrs. Fatula in Room B-356 if you are interested or would like more information. Online tickets are now on sale; $10 for students and $12 for the general public.

Seniors: The Alumni Association is offering scholarships for graduating seniors who are pursuing employment in their trade or going to college to further their education. Apply online by visiting the guidance page on the school's website. Applications are due on March 20th.

SAT Sign-Up: Any Junior or Senior student interested in taking the May SAT test, please see your Guidance Counselor before school, after school or during lunch for more information regarding registration. Students can also register online at www.collegeboard.org. It is highly recommended that students take the SAT with Essay test. Eligible students may see your Guidance Counselor for fee waivers. The registration deadline for the May test is April 3rd.

MASSHIRE: Greater New Bedford Career Center has announced the release of their 2020 summer works program application. Students should go to <https://jobquest.dcs.eol.mass.gov/jobquest/> to register. Please see Mrs. Walsh in K101 if you have any questions

Part-Time Jobs: There are part-time jobs available for students who are 18 or older. Visit the Census table during all lunch shifts every Monday in the month of March for more information.
